WEEKLY UPDATE

5th April 2019

Dear Parents and Carers,

It certainly feels very strange today as so many schools around us are breaking up for the Easter break! However, we are still working hard and planning a wonderful week of activities during Holy Week and we will enjoy slightly better weather when our holiday finally arrives (hopefully!).

Thank you to all parents who have sent in sponsor money following our whole school sponsored run last Friday afternoon. It was a lovely sight to see so many children enjoying taking part to raise money for others whilst at the same time having a bit of exercise too!

This week began well for our Y3 class as we welcomed Y3 children from St. Aidan's Catholic Primary as part of the Catholic School Lenten Prayer Relay. The children had prepared a Collective Worship to share with our children which was based around the theme 'Called by name'. It was lovely to see the children mixing so well together afterwards as they shared refreshments and play time.

On Tuesday our Year 5 presented their class assembly on the theme of 'Inspirational People'. The children shared with us the people who inspire them and the reasons why. They also reminded us that there are many ordinary people in our lives who are not famous or rich who inspire us every day. We heard recounts of family members who do great things to inspire. The children acted, sang and read beautifully and gave us such poignant messages to take away. Well done Year 5!

Individual class Lenten activities have also started this week and will continue into next week. The Mini Vinnies' Hunger Lunch takes place on Friday at 12pm and you are most welcome to attend. We thank you for your generosity this Lenten Season.

Have a lovely weekend.

Training will continue as normal on Monday—this will be the last session of the spring term. We look forward to the summer term and all the sporting activities that come with it.

First Forgiveness

Congratulations to the following children who received the sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time last night.

Jadan, Keira, Dominik, Alice, Amelia, Oliwier, Charlotte, Liliana, Nancy, Kornelia, Rufus, Oscar, Maja, Frankie, Hermionie, Daisy, Ezeikiel

Please remember them in your prayers as they continue their sacramental journey.

Dear Lord,

I thank You for the power of forgiveness, and I choose to forgive everyone who has hurt me. Help me bless those who have hurt me. Help me walk in righteousness, peace, and joy, demonstrating Your life here on earth. I choose to be kind and compassionate, forgiving others, just as You forgave me In Jesus' name, Amen.
