Dear Parents/Carers,

St Elizabeth's Choir is ready and raring to get started on another fantastic year of singing. Last year was as varied as ever, highlights include a Christmas singalong in Wythenshawe, singing at Young Voices at the Manchester Arena and being selected to perform at the One Education Music Showcase event at the Royal Northern College of Music. The children excelled themselves at all events and represented the school with enthusiasm as well as musical brilliance!

The choir is looking for new members from Year 3-6. We rehearse every Wednesday from 3:00-4:00 in the hall. There is no audition process, all I ask is that children attend every week and show enthusiasm for singing. We sing a range of music, from rock & pop to traditional, from show tunes to classical! Most of all the aim is to develop as singers and have fun!

If you would like your child to attend choir please sign up for the autumn term on ParentPay.

Kind Regards,

Sam Morris
Music Teacher
